

THE MAKING OF A DISCIPLE: THE RABBI'S ROAD
APRIL 5, 2009
PASTOR JON TACOMA

Questions for reflection and small group discussion:

How does knowing that Jesus is going to come again in power and glory shape the way that you follow him in your day to day life?

If the Rabbi's road is in the laying aside of power and the laying aside of being right and the laying aside our demands of justice for ourselves, and if it is in the living of a life of self sacrifice, and surrender, and compassion and love, and if it is in the giving away of the right to vindication and the embrace of forgiveness, do you find yourself attracted or repelled?

Are these descriptions of the Rabbi's road the way you think of Jesus? Are they the descriptors you want of yourself? What road are you walking?
