the making of a disciple

Discussion Question:

1. The call to repent is a call to 'change directions.' All too often we as Christians believe that the call to repent (to turn) is a one time action, but in truth, it is a daily activity. We lose sight of the power of a risen Savior. We forget about his inexhaustible love and forgiveness. We allow other things to become the lord of our lives. We try to live in our strength rather than with the Holy Spirit's power. With this in mind, where is the Holy Spirit inviting you to repent – to turn toward the Jesus that Peter so clearly presented in Acts 2?
